Choice Hotels NEC Player of the Week

Angela Pace, Robert Morris

Sr., G, 5-10, White Plains, NY/Monroe College

Pace did it all in Robert Morris' series sweep of Saint Francis (PA) on NEC Rivalry Weekend. Posting back-to-back double-doubles, including a near triple-double, Pace averaged 16.5 points, 14.0 rebounds, 7.0 assists, 4.0 steals per game. The 5-foot-10 guard tallied 23 points, a career-high 18 rebounds, five assists, and five steals to power Robert Morris to an overtime road victory over the Red Flash. The game's only player to play all 45 minutes scored eight points in the extra session, including a pair of early baskets that put the Colonials ahead for good. Pace followed that performance by coming within one assist of a triple-double in the Colonials' 31-point home rout of Saint Francis. The New York native totaled 10 points, 10 rebounds, and nine assists in 34 minutes. The NEC's leader in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.82-to-1) turned the ball over only four times in two games while dishing out 14 assists.

Choice Hotels NEC Co-Rookies of the Week

Kiley Evans, Sacred Heart

Fr., G, 5-9, Cazenovia, NY/Cazenovia

Evans scored no fewer than 15 points in each of Sacred Heart's NEC Rivalry Week wins. The rookie guard averaged 16.5 points and 6.0 rebounds in helping the Pioneers pick up a pair of double-digit victories over Nutmeg State rival Quinnipiac. She shot 52 percent (13-for-25) over the two-game sample. Evans put up 18 points and eight rebounds in a 51-34 home triumph over the Bobcats. In a 15-point road win two days later, the 5-foot-9 freshman accounted for 15 points, four rebounds, and three steals. Evans (11.4 ppg), who has won or shared rookie honors on four occasions this season, ranks third amongst NEC freshmen in scoring.

Vega Gimeno-Martinez, Robert Morris

Fr., F, 6-1, Valencia, Spain

Gimeno-Martinez averaged a team-high 18.5 points and 5.0 rebounds during Robert Morris two-game sweep of Keystone State rival Saint Francis (PA). The four-time Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week tallied 17 points and six rebounds in the Colonials' 76-70 overtime road win over the Red Flash. She needed only 25 minutes to score a game-high 20 points in the Colonials' ensuing 31-point home victory over Saint Francis. On her way to making 7 of 10 shots from the field, Gimeno-Martinez scored eight points early as the Colonials jumped out to a 15-4 lead and never looked back. Moving up to fifth amongst NEC three-point field goal percentage leaders (.404), Gimeno-Martinez shot 50 percent, making 7 of 14 shots, from downtown last week.

Only One in Six a Split on Rivalry Weekend

Five Northeast Conference teams swept their two-game series match-ups during the conference's inaugural Rivalry Weekend. Only Central Connecticut State and NEC newcomer Bryant battled to a series split with each team successfully defending its home court. Remaining tied atop the NEC standings, Robert Morris (11-1) and Sacred Heart (11-1) each dealt a pair of losses to cross-state rivals. RMU posted a six-point overtime win over Saint Francis (PA) before beating the Flash by 31 points at the Sewall Center. SHU held Quinnipiac to an average of 42.5 points per game over a pair of double-digit wins. Long Island stayed within three games of the league leaders by sweeping St. Francis (NY) in the "Battle of Brooklyn." Monmouth twice bested Fairleigh Dickinson in the Garden State Rivalry series while Wagner won two against Mount St. Mary's.

The innovative concept of playing back-to-back games against a local rival in a 48-hour span is the only one of its kind among the nation's 31 NCAA Division I conferences.

"NEC Rivalry Week provides an exciting and unique approach to creating a buzz among our fanbase," said Noreen Morris, NEC Commissioner. "By highlighting a number of long-standing rivalries, it should make for a dynamic weekend of hoops action across the Conference. In many cases, the geographic proximity of our institutions will allow fans the opportunity to attend both ends of the home-and-home series."

Robert Morris Riding Record Start to NEC Schedule

Robert Morris has won 11 of its first 12 Northeast Conference games for the first time in program history. Looking to make last season's disappointing 13-win season a distant memory, the Colonials are four victories away from winning 20 games for the fifth time in six years. RMU, a winner of its last six, currently sits tied with defending NEC champion Sacred Heart atop the league standings.

Swanson Turns 18 Again

Sacred Heart has done it again. For the ninth consecutive season under head coach Ed Swanson, the Pioneers have managed to win no fewer than 18 games. SHU's two-game series sweep of Quinnipiac puts the team record at 18-5 with six scheduled NEC contests remaining. The Pioneers, who have won five consecutive games, are approaching what would be their fourth 20-win campaign in five years. Sacred Heart has won 32 of its last 33 games against Northeast Conference members.

NEC Assists Leader Set Record, Comes up One Shy of Triple-Double

Sophomore guard Kiara Evans (Norcross, GA/Louisville) nearly added a triple-double to the impressive resume she has put together during her first season of competition for Long Island after transferring from Big East power Louisville. Flirting with a triple-double for the third time this year, Evans totaled 18 points, 10 rebounds, and nine assists in LIU's 67-57 win over St. Francis (NY) (Feb. 6). While helping the Blackbirds to a victory that kept them in third place, three games off the pace of league leaders Robert Morris and Sacred Heart, Evans became LIU's all-time single-season assists leader. Although they were not enough for a triple-double, the nine assists moved Evans (162) past former Blackbird Mary Lucas (156). Averaging 7.04 assists per game, Evans leads the Northeast Conference.

Taylor's Sophomore Season Full of Double-Doubles

Sacred Heart sophomore Callan Taylor (Overland Park, KS/Blue Valley North) has found little time for slumping. The 2009 NEC All-Rookie selection is too busy scoring and rebounding. Taylor posted back-to-back double-doubles during Sacred Heart's two-game sweep of Quinnipiac last week, running her league-leading total to 13. The 13 double-doubles are nearly twice as many as the NEC's second-ranked individual - Quinnipiac's Courtney Kaminski (7) - and match SHU's single-season record set by Jasmine Walker during the 2006-07 campaign. Taylor is the NEC's top rebounder (9.7 rpg) this season while ranking sixth (14.9 ppg) amongst scoring leaders.

NEC Notebook

Pace Puts up Numbers Like No Other

Senior guard Angela Pace (White Plains, NY/Monroe College) has made a triumphant return to the Robert Morris lineup, to say the least. After missing much of the 2008-09 season due to injury, Pace is the only NEC player to rank amongst the top-five league leaders in scoring (5th - 15.0 ppg), rebounding (5th - 7.6 rpg), and assists (3rd - 5.52 apg). The 5-foot-10 guard's sensational resume does not stop there. Her 2.82 assist-to-turnover ratio leads the NEC while her 2.48 steals per game rank second.

Mount St. Mary's Goes Off-Road

Mount St. Mary's its final two regular season road games this week when it swings through the Garden State to take on Fairleigh Dickinson and Monmouth. The Mountaineers will play their final four regular season games at home and likely won't complain about it. Earlier this season, the Mount embarked on a program-record nine-game road trip that spanned 46 days. Mount St. Mary's played three of the season's first five games at Knott Arena, the last of which came on November 28, before hitting to road for almost seven weeks.

Laury Lengthens Scoring Lead

Fairleigh Dickinson sophomore Mariah Laury (Orange, NJ/Orange) is showing no signs of slowing when it coming to scoring. The 2009 NEC All-Rookie honoree has tallied no fewer than 20 points in any of her last five outings, including 47 total points during the two-game Garden State series. As a result, the lightning-quick guard is averaging a NEC-best 17.9 points per game this season.

See the Rematch of the 2009 Title Game on NEC-TV

After besting Nutmeg State rival Quinnipiac in its first NEC-TV appearance of the season, Sacred Heart will look for a second win on the tube when it visit Saint Francis (PA) on February 20. In what will mark the third of four regular season games the Northeast Conference will televise on regional networks this season, the Pioneers will face the Red Flash in a grudge match of the 2009 NEC Championship Game.
